Re: NTC Scholarship Award Ceremony on Friday, June 6, 2025

Huu-ay-aht First Nations would like to extend our heartfelt congratulations to all graduates who recently celebrated their achievements at the NTC Scholarship Award Ceremony on Friday, June 6, 2025. We sincerely apologize that a representative from Huu-ay-aht First Nations was not able to be present at the ceremony. Please know that although we were not there in person, we were with you in spirit and in pride.

We recognize the dedication, determination, and hard work it took to reach this important milestone in your life. Your commitment to your education and future is something to be deeply proud of. You are the future of our Nation, and we stand with you in celebration.

Congratulations to the following Huu-ay-aht First Nations students who received a 2025 NTC Scholarship Awards:

Adelene Fred	Bennett Malcomson
Dakota (Coda) Johnson	Sydney Nookemus
Summer Little	Kylie Robinson
Madison Lucas

As you begin your next journey, whether it be further education, work, or new experiences, Huu-ay-aht wishes you continued success, happiness, and strength. May your path forward be guided by wisdom, courage, and the teachings of our ancestors.

We are excited to announce that Huu-ay-aht will be hosting a graduation ceremony to honour all 2025 graduates on July 25, 2025, at the House of Huu-ay-aht in Anacla, B.C.. We warmly invite all graduates and their families to join us for this special celebration. We look forward to recognizing your achievements in community and in culture.
