To: The Young Family

I AM SORRY FOR THE HARM THAT MY PAST ACTIONS HAVE CAUSED.

Back on June 23, 2019, I was incarcerated for two years. When I was sentenced, I apologized to Rosanne Young and back then I was called by Kathy Waddell and was told that Rosanne was scared and had put in a complaint to Council about me.
I said that I did not mean anything by it and even then, I said that I was sorry. I also did that in court and I'm sorry to the Young family for what I did back then and I'm sorry to hear that such a good friend and cousin, Rosanne passed. My condolences go out to the Young Family as we all are so close to each other, after all, we are all family.
I felt that the two years I've done for the crimes that I did was punishment enough. I also did a lot of courses that the judge wanted me to do, like Narcotics Anonymous and also Alcoholics Anonymous. For me to get my diploma in NA and AA, I was to host a class for each. I also did a Respectful Relationships program as well that I received a diploma.
I also learned a lot about myself. As well I learned to love myself and was a mentor to others while I definitely learned to be much better to myself as well as others. I learned to treat people with respect as I would myself. To think about what I say before I mouth off. I always used to have my guard up. It was the way I was back then.
I was always scared because I was beaten, I was ashamed about what happened to me when I was a kid. Because back then I was told not to say anything but I know I'm a much better person. I know I have a lot more patience. I did a lot of beading and learned how to make cedar roses and how to build native drums. I felt good about myself and I was learning to sing and I felt good about that. It was the drumming that attracted me to want to bang on the drum. It made me feel good about myself on the inside. It was gratifying. It brought me back to who I am, and where I come from. Being a member of the Huu-ay-aht band.
The two years that I did being incarcerated was a good thing for me. I learned a lot. It slowed me down and made me a better person. So once again, I'm sorry to the Young Family as well as to the Huu-ay-aht community. I would very much love to move back home and help the people as I am part of the Treaty negotiation that happened.

I love you all.

Thank you
Chuu
