AIRS
(Alberni Indian Residential School)

Trigger Warning: The following may be triggering for some. Support is available and information about cultural and mental health supports are available at the end of this notice.

Tseshaht First Nation has announced that the Alberni Indian Residential School Project (AIRS) has hired GeoScan to conduct Ground Penetrating Rader (GPR) and other appropriated scanning techniques and will begin their work in the former residential School area starting on July 11/22 for 2 weeks. Following the scanning, a report will be written and released.

Scanning will be conducted with compassion and care as to not disrupt possible burial locations.

We recognize that this work may be difficult for those who carry memories connected to AIRS and want to ensure you are supported.

Housing Update

Six building lots available to Huu-ay-aht citizens coming soon

The Huu-ay-aht Executive Council has approved the designation of six building lots in the Anacla subdivision to be made available to citizens to lease a lot and construct and own their own home. These lots will be available to citizens at a cost of $1 per year on a 99-year lease.

The lots are located off Nookemus Road, closer to the House of Huu-ay-aht than the existing housing and are all located on a “cull de sac” temporarily called Road B (which will be named appropriately) so that they will be in a separate section of the subdivision. On the building plan, these are identified as lots 3 through 8. The lot plan follows and shows the locations of the lots and the House of Huu-ay-aht and the new Cultural Centre.

The lot sizes are as follows (all figures in square feet)

- Lot 19 12091 (Southwest corner or west side of Road B)
- Lot 18 12042
- Lot 17 14115
- Lot 16 14155
- Lot 15 12000
- Lot 14 12000 (Southeast corner or right side of Road B)

All of the lots will be connected to services to the lot lines, including sewer and water. These are being constructed currently and the road will be gravel initially. The lots have been cleared and available for construction starting in August 2022. The lots can be viewed now, providing construction activity is not underway.

Citizens should be aware that they are fully responsible for obtaining their own financing for the construction of homes. The value of the lots will be determined through financing appraisals, but should count as part of the equity in a home.

There will be additional requirements in terms of the time allowance for construction, what types of housing can be constructed, requirements to meet building codes and uses of buildings. These will be provided at a later date. Initial inquiries should be directed to rentalhousing@huuayaht.org, no phone calls please.

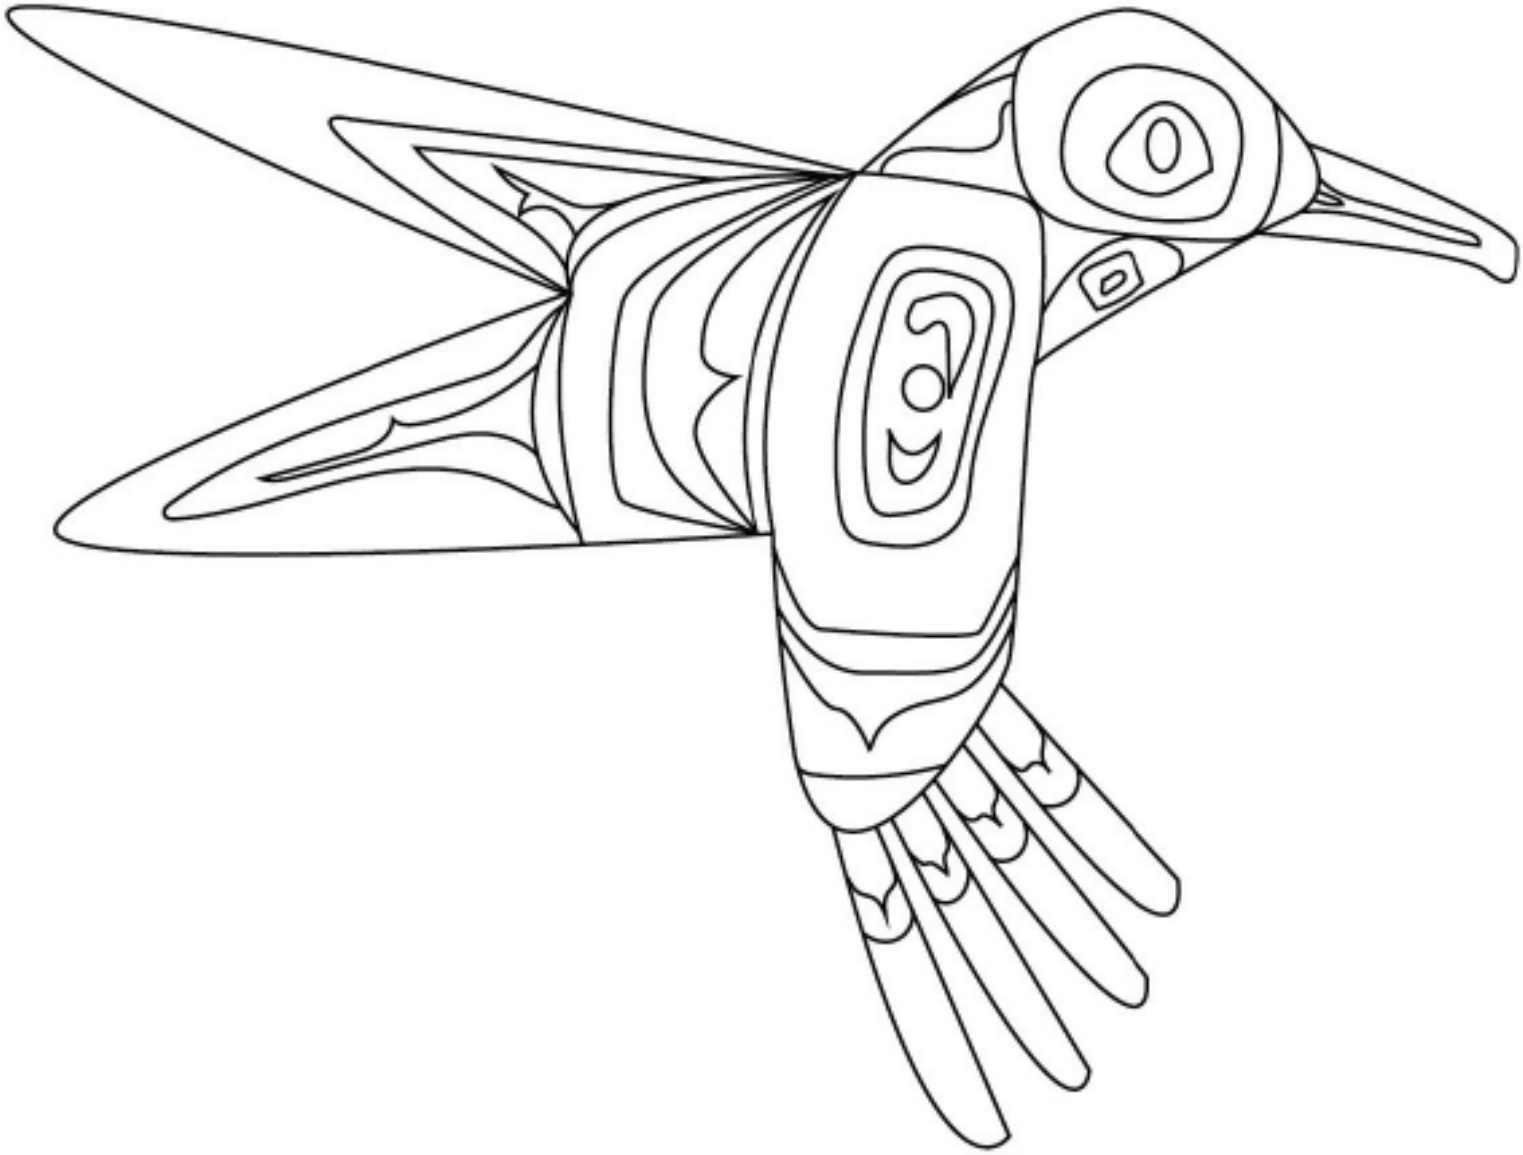

Citizens who are interested and feel they have the financial resources to construct their own home will be asked to complete an application form by Sept 15, 2022. The applicant’s financial resources will be an important part of the review to ensure that if allocated, citizens will be able to financially complete construction. These applications will be reviewed and allocation decisions made on the lots.

Should not all lots be allocated, there will be an open process on the remaining lots based on a first come basis after the initial allocation. If there are more applicants than lots, a lottery will be held to allocate lots. More information to come and applications to apply for a lot will be available on August 1, 2022.
