These dedicated Huu-ay-aht Youth and their teammates had won the Island Basketball Championship, Saturday, February 19, 2022. We are proud to share news of their great accomplishments, as it has been since 1997 an Alberni Basketball team has been crowned champions. This is the first time a male Alberni basketball team has been crowned Vancouver Island champions since 1997 and the last time a senior girls basketball team had won the Island Championship in 35 years!

COOK FAMILY RAISES MONEY FOR ALBERNI'S ARAMADA SENIOR GIRLS!

On February 27, 2022, there was a Loonie Toonie and Auction fundraiser held at the Alberni Athletic Hall to help cover travel costs.
The successful fundraiser received many donations for the senior girls' basketball team, from local businesses, sponsors, first nation organizations, friends, and family in form of cash to Smart TV to Massage gift cards.
The excitement of this great news can be felt with the nine days of fundraising, resulting in a total of $7,545.78 to help support the Armada Senior Girls Basketball team with their journey to provincials.

NORTH ISLAND COLLEGE

Indigenous Language Fluency Certificate (ILF) in Nuu-chah-nulth Language

Explore Indigenous language through this unique certificate program. You'll draw on local Indigenous knowledge systems, ways of knowing, and protocols through experiential and land-based learning to explore the values and beliefs encoded in Indigenous language. This cohort based program will help you to unearth the understanding of how language forms the foundation of all Indigenous relationships.

These courses are offered in a digital scheduled format where students participate in a digital classroom, using a video conferencing system, as well as completing some independent work. Students will be required to come together in person 2-3 times per semester. Students, instructors and language speakers will meet at specified times each week. Computer and Internet required.

September 2022 – December 2023

Tuition free to Nuu-chah-nulth community members.
