Dear Tenants,

As the weather warms up, wildlife is becoming much more active in our area. To ensure our community remains safe, clean, and beautiful for everyone, we are asking all tenants to do a quick seasonal clean-up of their outdoor spaces.

Please take a few moments to review the important reminders below regarding garbage management and outdoor maintenance.

1. Secure Your Garbage & Avoid Wildlife Attractants
With wildlife on the move, unsecured garbage is the number one cause of unwanted encounters with animals.

- Secure All Bins: Please ensure all trash and recycling are placed securely in the designated garbage bins, with lids tightly closed.
- Clear Attractants: Keep outdoor spaces (patios, balconies, and yards) free of debris, food scraps, and anything else that might attract pests or wildlife.

2. Landscaping & Outdoor Spaces
While we love seeing everyone enjoy their outdoor spaces, please remember that tenants must obtain the landlord's prior written consent before making any changes to the landscaping on the residential property.

As a reminder, maintaining these spaces is a shared responsibility outlined in Schedule A (Standard Terms) of your Rental Tenancy Agreement:

Tenant's Obligations (Section 6, Part 2):

(a) The tenant must maintain reasonable health, cleanliness and sanitary standards throughout the rental unit and the other residential property to which the tenant has access. The tenant must take the necessary steps to repair damage to the residential property caused by the actions or neglect of the tenant or of a person permitted on the property by the tenant. The tenant is not responsible for repairs for reasonable wear and tear to the residential property.

(b) If the tenant does not comply with the above obligations within a reasonable time, the landlord may discuss the matter with the tenant and may make an application for dispute resolution under the Residential Tenancy Act (BC), seeking an order of the director for the cost of repairs, serve a notice to end a tenancy, or both.

Conversely, the landlord remains fully committed to its obligations under Section 6 (Part 1) to maintain the property in a reasonable state of decoration and repair, complying with all health, safety, and housing standards required by law.

If you have any questions or notice any areas of the property requiring repair, contact the Housing Manager at 866-307-0356 or manager@hfnha.org

Huu-ay-aht staff take part in all-staff Treaty Training

On Wednesday, June 10, Huu-ay-aht First Nations (HFN) Government staff from Port Alberni and Anacla gathered at the House of Huu-ay-aht to learn about the Nation's journey to Treaty.
'Treaty 101' was prepared and presented by Huu-ay-aht citizens, speaker, and BC Treaty Commissioner, Angela Wesley. Angela shared valuable information about how HFN became the self-governing Nation we know today, outlining the core motivations behind the historic decision and the foundational goals that continue to guide the community.

During the presentation, Angela highlighted that the path to a modern-day treaty was a deliberate choice by Huu-ay-aht citizens. While legal battles and court cases yielded some victories over the years, the litigation process ultimately proved too costly in time and money.

Recognizing that HFN could not fully achieve its long-term goals under the restrictions of the Indian Act, the Nation was already preparing to govern itself. The Treaty was voted on by citizens as the logical next legal step toward true independence, aimed at improving the lives of all Huu-ay-aht People, no matter where they live, while protecting and stewarding HFN lands and natural resources for years to come.

The presentation also highlighted historic growth and autonomy Huu-ay-aht achieved since the Treaty was officially implemented. Angela shared several remarkable milestones that underscore the power of self-governance:

- Expanded Territory: The Nation has added 800 hectares to its land base since 2011.
- Territorial Control: Huu-ay-aht now controls, manages, or jointly controls 91% of its traditional territory.
- Financial Growth: Since implementation, financial investments have undergone a massive transformation, increasing by up to 32 times. As well as increased Federal funding for the Nation by 102%.

These milestones reflect the strict criteria the Treaty had to meet to serve the Nation effectively. It needed to:

- Assert the inherent right to self-government within a modern context.
- Recognize and protect both land and sea rights.
- Provide the necessary tools to empower communities socially and economically.
- Serve as the foundation for an ongoing, living relationship.

On behalf of Huu-ay-aht First Nations Government and all the staff in attendance, we send a sincere thank you to Angela for taking the time to present and for so generously sharing her knowledge, history, and insight. Sessions like 'Treaty 101' play a vital role in ensuring that staff remain deeply connected to the Nation's mission, grounded in its history, and fully equipped to support Huu-ay-aht citizens as the journey of self-governance continues to unfold.
