REMINDER

If you have moved - don't forget to update your details with Alexis at 250-723-0100 ext. 110 or email her at alexis.y@huuayaht.org

Be sure to contact Sheila at 250-731-5676, or sheila_c@huuayaht.org when you need to use the House of Huuayaht (Hall & Kitchen.)

This will help us make sure the House of Huuayaht is clean and ready for everyone's use.

Please note that carabiners have been put on the garbage bins in Anacla.

Čims (bears) have been spotted in the community and are attracted to the garbage. Please dispose of your garbage properly by placing it in the bins and secure the carabiners when done. If the bin has a bear-bar, it needs to be locked in the upright position with the carabiners.

Huu-ay-aht Government Offices Welcome New Employees

Angie MacKinnon

Angie is our new Building Service Worker. She graduated from ADSS in 2003. She has been a licensed esthetician since 2004, and has worked in salons, spas and has done homebased esthetician services. Angie was the manager of the beauty department at Shoppers Drug Mart for 8 years.

Beverly Jack

Bev is the new Administrative Support Worker at the Port Alberni Government Office. She can be found greeting everyone, answering phones, and booking the use of vehicles and board rooms. In previous years she was the receptionist for Nuu-chah-nulth Tribal Council and worked with the treaty team.

Jen Carwithen

Jen Carwithen is the Administrative Support Worker at the Anacla Government Office. Jen attended VIU and studied Applied Business Technology, afterwards she lived and worked in Bamfield for three years. It became her heart home, where she returned.

Danielle Tramer

Danielle is the new Communications Assistant in the Port Alberni office. She has lived in Port Alberni for almost her whole life. She was born and raised in this beautiful community. She moved to Calgary when she was in her 20s and desperately missed the trees, ocean, and lakes.

Karrine Magnussen

Karrine is our new communications Liaison. She was raised in the Alberni Valley and studied interactive media and communication design at North Island College. She has over 12 years of experience in marketing and design. Karrine is a movie and DC fan and managed the Port Alberni Movie theatre!

Nicole McCallion

Nicole is the new Lands and Natural Resources Coordinator. She spent her childhood in Ontario before moving around British Columbia. She finally found a permanent home in Port Alberni in 2020. She is so happy to be in a place where she can hike with her dog, surf, or just enjoy her garden at home

We will be doing staff features moving forward so you can get to know the staff

Provincial Fire Ban in effect . Only CSA approved propane fire burners/pits are allowed until ban is lifted.
