ANCIENT SPIRIT, MODERN MIND

If you are:

(a) a member or a registered Indian of an Indian Band,
(b) enrolled under another treaty or land claims agreement in Canada, or
(c) entitled to receive benefits under another treaty or land claims agreement in Canada, you must include with your application the documents necessary to withdraw your membership, registration, enrolment or entitlement under paragraphs (a) to (c) together with written authorization for the Registrar to submit those documents on your behalf in the event that you are eventually granted citizenship.

Please contact the citizenship Registrar at 250.723.0100, or email enrol@huuayaht.org to determine what documents must be included with your application.

NOTE: If you eventually apply for an are granted Huu-ay-aht citizenship, the paperwork you provide will be submitted to the government of Canada together with an Executive Council resolution confirming your applications have been accepted. After the enrolment and citizenship applications are approved, you will have the rights of a Huu-ay-aht treaty participant and citizen under Huu-ay-aht law. However, please note that Huu-ay-aht does not have any control over Canada's processes and it may take some time for the Canadian government to issue a new status number that reflects your status as a Huu-ay-aht citizen.
