

HUU-AY-AHT COMPREHENSIVE COMMUNITY PLAN

Anacla Engagement: Round 1

October 2020

Agenda

- Our goals for today:
  - What's a CCP?
  - What are your thought and ideas for the CCP?
  - What will happen next?

Project Overview

Huu-ay-aht Comprehensive Community Plan

What's a CCP?

It's a plan that is:

COMPREHENSIVE – big picture

COMMUNITY – member driven

PLAN – action-oriented

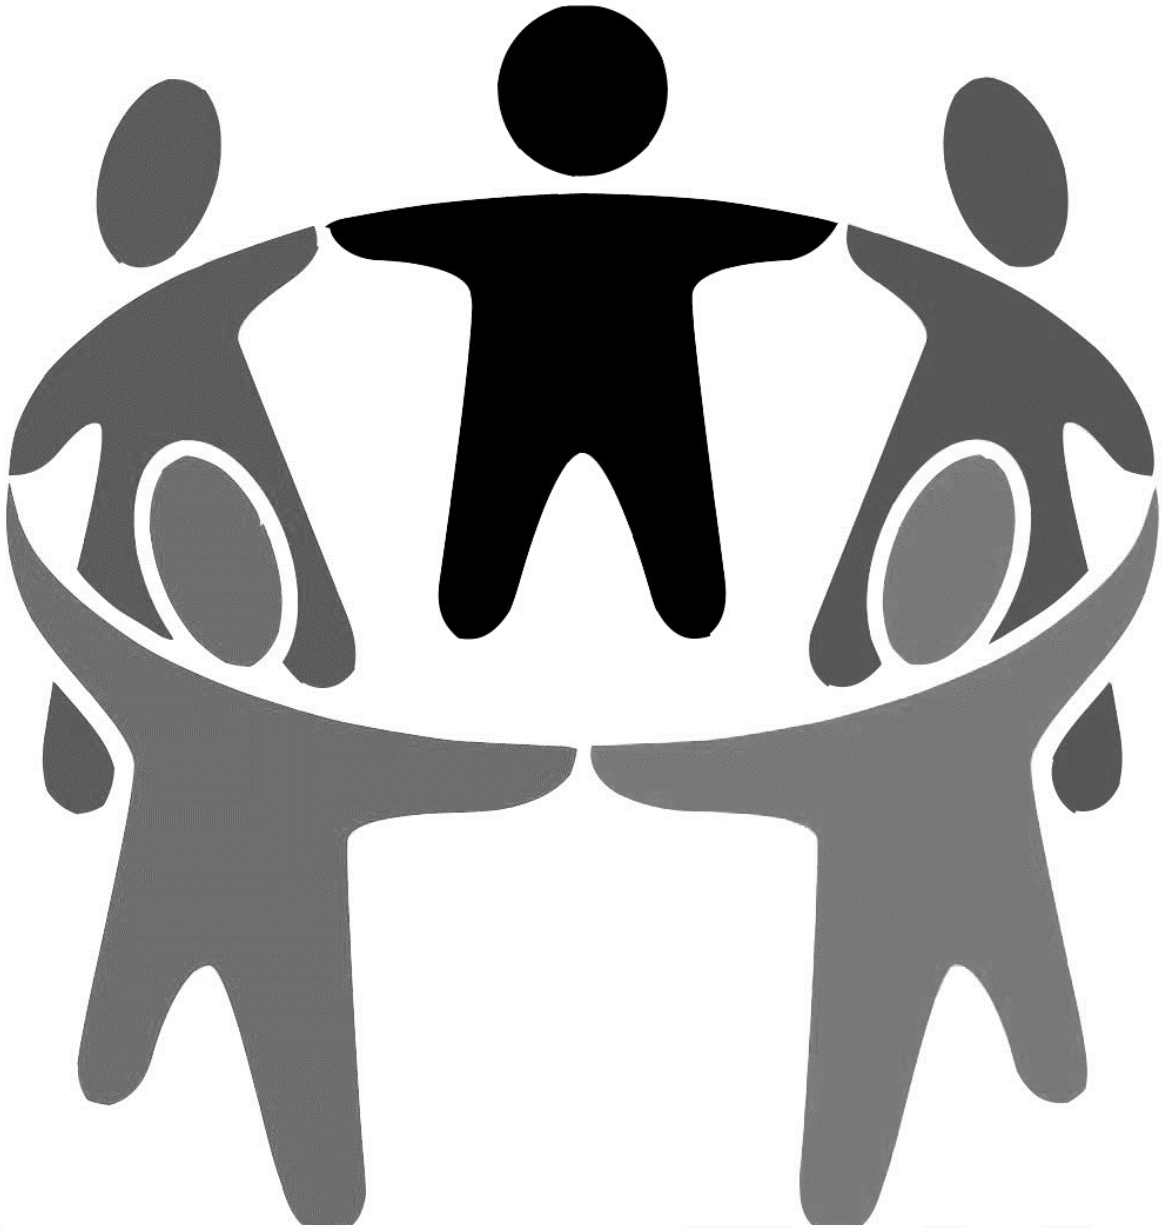

Comprehensive

- Looks at all aspects of the community
- Looks at whole Huu-ay-aht Community (on Traditional Territory and members living elsewhere)

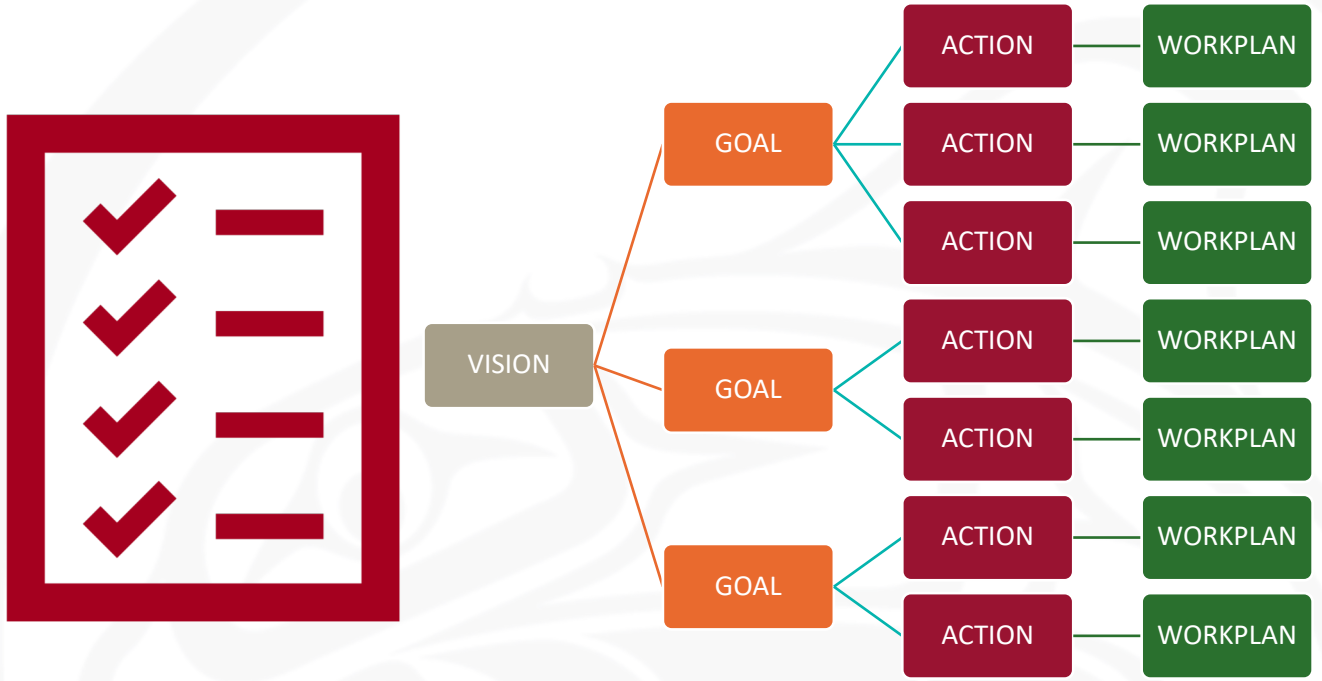

Community

- Includes everyone
- Anacla and elsewhere
  - Port Alberni
  - Nanaimo
  - Victoria
  - Vancouver

Plan

- Strategic and phased
- Actionable
- Priorities and trade offs

“What kind of society do we want to create?”

Huu-ay-aht Comprehensive Community Plan

Why Does Huu-ay-aht Need a CCP?

Modern Treaty Nation

- Many ongoing projects
- Many new opportunities

“What kind of society do we want to create?”

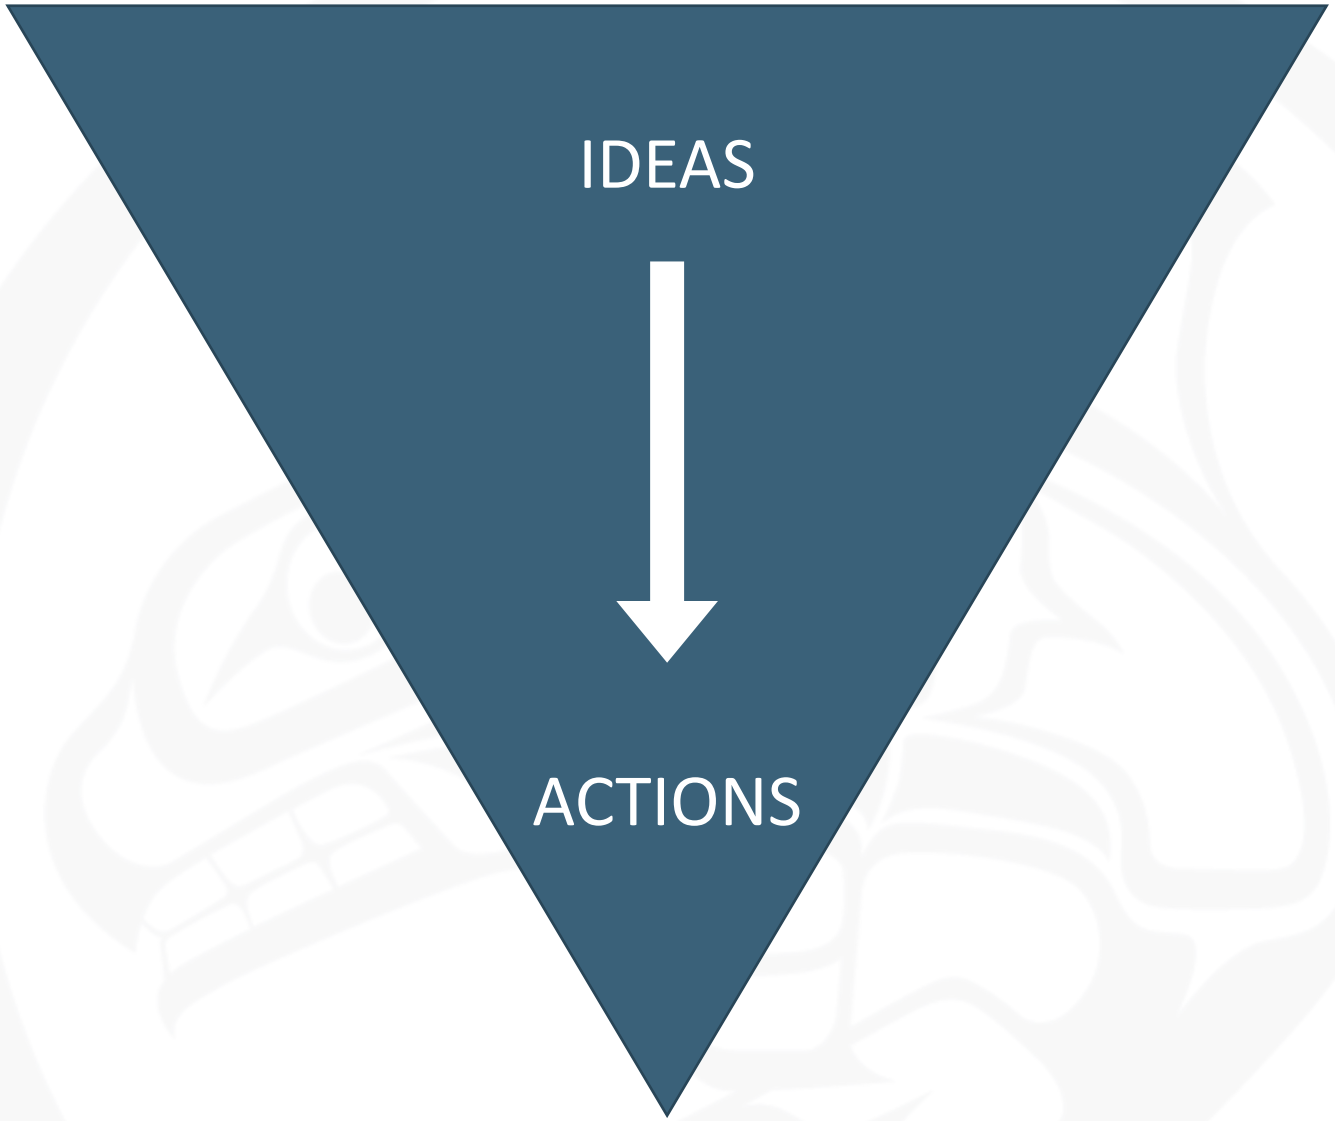

The CCP is about making a plan to get to where we want to go

- Can’t do it all at once
- Smart choices about how to get there
- Detailed and realistic

What's a CCP?

It's a plan that:

- Listens to all Citizens
- Looks into options
- Gets into the details
- Is clear about trade-offs
- Prioritizes actions
  - Cost
  - Timelines
  - Feasibility

CCP Timeline

WHERE ARE WE NOW?

FALL 2019

WHERE DO WE WANT TO GO?

WINTER 2020

HOW DO WE GET THERE?

SPRING 2020

HAVE WE ARRIVED?

SUMMER 2020

Why Do We Need a CCP?

- BENEFITS
  - Gets whole community involved in creating a shared vision
    - Where does Huu-ay-aht First Nations want to go?
  - Identifies priorities and makes plans to achieve them
    - How does Huu-ay-aht First Nations achieve its vision?
  - Organizes all the ongoing work into clear plan

- CHALLENGES
  - Time consuming and hard work
  - “Engagement fatigue”
  - Expectations management

What We’ve Done So Far

Huu-ay-aht Comprehensive Community Plan

Engagement

- Staff and leadership interviews
  - Priority objectives
  - Programs – existing, on the horizon, new
  - Setting the direction
  - Building support

- Reviewing Plans and Documents
  - So much is happening!
  - Organizing current work

Community objectives

- Keep our culture and language strong
- House more citizens within the ḥahuułi
- Take care of our land and resources (sustainable wealth that respects Huu-ay-aht values of conservation)
- Promote the safety and health of our people
- Keep improving our strong governance
- Advance the education of our people (academic, training, and skills)
- Support individual self-determination (job opportunities, etc)
- Pursue community economic development
- Improve connectivity
- Promote Reconciliation

Projects – existing

- Increase health services (cultural and clinical)
- Increase number of school graduates
- Incorporate culture into daily activities
- Increase self-reliance
- Warriors program
- Kiix̱in Tours
- Road upgrades

Projects – on the horizon.

- Diversify the economy & explore business opportunities
- Provide safe and affordable housing for all members
- Complete infrastructure projects in Anacla
- Implement Treaty fishery provisions
- Help people connect to the land
- Lease to non-citizens

Projects – new.

- Prepare members for employment and match their skills to jobs
- Improve law and regulation enforcement on Traditional Territory
- Provide recreation for all ages
- Hold more community events
- Open a safe house
- Open a women's centre

Where do we want to go?

Huu-ay-aht Comprehensive Community Plan

Mentimeter Questions

What additional areas should Huu-ay-aht be working on?

- Add your ideas to IdeaShare!

RATE

bit.ly/ideashare-Huuayaht

What’s Next?

Huu-ay-aht Comprehensive Community Plan

What's Next?

Complete Round 1!

- Listen to the ideas and issues from the community, staff and leadership

Stay tuned for Round 2!

- Organize it all and get your priorities
- See what makes sense
  - what is feasible?
  - What makes sense
  - When should it happen – what is first, second, etc.?

HUU-AY-AHT COMPREHENSIVE COMMUNITY PLAN

Thank You