Dear Huu-ay-aht Citizen:

Re: Public Notice – March 2013 Session of the Legislature

I am pleased to advise you that Executive Council has called a Session of the Legislature to commence at 10:00 am on Monday, March 18, 2013. Two further sittings of the Legislature are scheduled for Thursday, March 28, 10:00 am – 12:00 noon and Thursday, March 28, 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm. The session will be held at the Maʔas suqin (Administration Office) in Anacla.

The following documents are attached with the official Public Notice:

1. Proposed Agenda, including proposed motions
2. Proposed Budget Act, 2013
3. Proposed Economic Development Committee Act
4. Proposed Miscellaneous Statutes Amendment Act, 2013

Please note that all proposed Acts are subject to legal and legislative drafting changes.

As per the section 36 (1) of the Interpretation Act in an enactment, if a Huu-ay-aht body or public officer must give notice, the notice must be given in at least two of the five prescribed methods. We have chosen option (a) posting the notice on a government website accessible to the general public; and (e) posting a notice in one or more visible locations in the Huu-ay-aht Government Offices. We are providing a third option by mailing a copy of this letter with the proposed Agenda to each eligible voter. You can view the proposed Acts at www.huuayaht.org or if you would like copies mailed to you, please call the Port Alberni Government Office at 250-723-0100.

If you have any questions or would like further information, please do not hesitate to call me at (250) 723-0100.

Sincerely,

Connie Waddell
Executive Director/Law Clerk
